

THE G. AVERY & GLADYS LEE PREACHING SERIES

SPONSORED BY ST. CHARLES AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH

THE LEE PREACHING SERIES

This series began in 1998 with a gift from the Rev. G. Avery Lee and his wife Gladys. The series continues due to the ongoing support of members of St. Charles Avenue Baptist Church. In creating this series, it was Dr. Lee's desire to bring to our city some of the finest preachers of our time.

PAST SERIES GUESTS

- 1998 Gardiner Taylor
- 1999 Paul D. Duke
- 2000 Martin Marty
- 2001 Barbara Brown Taylor
- 2002 Ralph Wood
- 2002 Bill Leonard
- 2002 Jean Bethke Elshstain
- 2003 Fisher Humphreys
- 2004 Roger Olson
- 2005 (canceled due to hurricane)
- 2006 Julie Pennington-Russell
- 2007 David Bartlett
- 2008 Austin Amonette
- 2009 Marion D. Aldridge
- 2010 Charles Bugg
- 2011 Mark Biddle

OUR 2012 PULPIT GUEST

We welcome back the Rev. Dr. Amy Butler, a former associate pastor here and still a friend.

Rev. Dr. Amy Butler

Pastor Amy has served as Senior Pastor at Calvary Baptist Church in Washington, D.C. since July 2003. Her job is to lead the congregation in faithful response to the direction of God's Spirit . . . which has often taken Calvary's congregation places it never anticipated! Pastor Amy holds degrees from Baylor University (BA '91, MA '96); The International Baptist Theological Seminary (BDiv '95); and Wesley Theological Seminary (DMin '09). Before going to Calvary Amy worked with the homeless community in New Orleans, and served as Associate Pastor of Membership and Missions at St. Charles Avenue Baptist Church. Pastor Amy holds the deep conviction that the institutional church can be part of bringing in the Kingdom of God here and now, and she feels extraordinarily fortunate to walk the journey of faith these days with Christ-followers at Calvary who feel the same.

In her free time she loves to travel, read, garden, and write. She often comments on faith and life in general on her blog, Talk With the Preacher. You can also read her columns every two weeks on the Associated Baptist Press.

Pastor Amy has served as Senior Pastor at Calvary Baptist Church in Washington, D.C. since July 2003. Her job is to lead the congregation in faithful response to the direction of God's Spirit . . . which has often taken Calvary's congregation places it never anticipated! Pastor Amy holds degrees from Baylor University (BA '91, MA '96); The International Baptist Theological Seminary (BDiv '95); and Wesley Theological Seminary (DMin '09). Before going to Calvary Amy worked with the homeless community in New Orleans, and served as Associate Pastor of Membership and Missions at St. Charles Avenue Baptist Church. Pastor Amy holds the deep conviction that the institutional church can be part of bringing in the Kingdom of God here and now, and she feels extraordinarily fortunate to walk the journey of faith these days with Christ-followers at Calvary who feel the same.

JOIN US ON

SATURDAY & SUNDAY NOVEMBER 17 & 18

Saturday — 10 am to Noon

Dr. Butler discusses We Refused to Lead a Dying Church by Paul Nixon, and shares the story of the faith journey and renewal of Calvary Baptist Church in Washington, DC. , which is included in the book.

The session will conclude with a Bluegrass Brunch, featuring Jackson Ramsey's Band. We are serving gumbo, salad & dessert.

Sunday Worship at 11:00 am

Dr. Butler will be preaching.

Sermon Title: I Hope You Dance

Both events are free and open to the public.

St. Charles Avenue Baptist Church

7100 St. Charles Avenue
New Orleans, LA 70118

Phone: 504-861-9514
Fax: 504-866-0284
Email: office@scabc.org
Website: www.scabc.org